Carl Horton – Technical Director

Carl is originally from Grimsby in England and arrived in Canada in 2005. Carl spent four years in New York City working for NOGA soccer, at the time a leading soccer education company in North America.

From 2005-2008 Carl worked as a Technical Director for London FC in London, Ontario. In this role, Carl provided youth clubs in the London area with technical support and advice that specifically focused on Coach and Player Development.

In 2008, Carl joined Mount Hamilton Youth Soccer Club where he spent six years as their Club Head Coach, building programs that were LTPD compliant. In March of 2014, Carl became the Regional Manager of Player Development at the Ontario Soccer Association. During his role at the Provincial Association, Carl worked with Technical staff and the Board of Directors of District Associations and Clubs Throughout Western Ontario. During Carl's time in Ontario, he also became a Master Learning Facilitator, Coach Evaluator and a Coach Developer for Ontario Soccer. Carl delivered community courses, CSA C license, and CSA National B Part 1 courses across Ontario.

Most Recently, Carl worked at Oakville Soccer Club in the role of the Coach Development and Youth Program Manager. Carl was in charge of creating the Recreational and Development programs curriculum, as well as conducting coach education sessions for all levels of coaches within the Club.
