Reid Calder – Member Services

Reid Calder is a dedicated, motivated, and energetic General Business and Public Relations graduate, both received from Fanshawe College. Reid was born and raised within Waterloo and has lived in the community his whole life. Reid has been a part of Waterloo Minor Soccer Club since U3. He has played within the Recreational and Competitive programs within Waterloo United.

Throughout his education, previous work experience, and summer employment, Reid has been able to apply his strongest abilities within his current role. Reid is the first face you will see when you walk into the front office, or the first voice you hear when you call. He is always there to serve the community with a smile and friendly service.

Reid thrives to be the best through his own ability and strengths. If it's in the classroom, in the workplace, or on the soccer field, Reid is there to conquer the competition with aspiration, determination, and teamwork.
