MEDIA RELEASE

November 24th, 2022

Waterloo Minor Soccer Club Partners with Fafali Organization

Waterloo, Ontario – The Waterloo Minor Soccer Club (WMSC) partners with non-profit Fafali Organization, from Ghana, West Africa. The Fafali Organization is a Social Impact project based non-profit/charity organization that works with marginalized groups and underserved children ages 5-18 in the Anumle Electoral Area (Urban) in the Greater Accra Region of Ghana, and the Kpoviadzi Electoral Area (Rural) in the Volta Region in Ghana.

"We at Fafali believe the best partnerships aren't dependent on a mere common goal but on a shared path of equality, desire, and great amount of passion", said Raymond Senyo Amezado, President and Founder Fafali Organization. "It is upon both parties to make this partnership bear fruit to be of benefit not just to individuals but countries and continents."

As a not-profit organization itself, WMSC recognizes the importance of collaborating with other organizations that share similar ambitions and directives.

Executive Director Waterloo Minor Soccer Club, Paul Burns said, "The Waterloo Minor Soccer Club is very pleased to be able to partner with the Fafali Organization. We are looking forward to working together in the areas of player and coach development as well as providing much needed soccer equipment to their athletes. This partnership is another way for the Waterloo Minor Soccer Club to develop relationships with like-minded organizations and help the game of soccer grow globally."

Waterloo Minor Soccer Club is a non-profit organization that has been providing soccer programming in the Waterloo Region since 1971. Last year, the club Partnered with highly reputable German professional football club, Borussia Dortmund. BVB International Academy - Waterloo, an extension of Waterloo Minor Soccer Club, was birthed from this partnership.

-30-

Organization Contact for Media Inquiries:
Teddy Hiadzi, Communications Manager
Waterloo Minor Soccer Club
519-578-9680
teddy@waterloounited.com